

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary is a
clear example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead of something produced
far away from our communities, it's more important that we see real people
in our own
communities produce
and more substantive
news about issues
that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership.

In this instance,
please make it
clear to Sinclair
that they proposing
to operate outside
of the public
interest.
You can lean on
them.
Thanks.
